Hub Cap Thieves Roam City Over 20 Stolen Already

A group of automobile hub cap thieves have been making their way through the city the Sheriff's Office reported this week.

Over 16 hub caps were stolen in one night from in front of a local business establishment and four, valued at $50 were lifted from the car of Bobby Fivard from in front of his home on Second Street.

At the present time Chief Sam Peterson has been working on the case and has come up with a few leads.

Peterson said, "I have a few clues, which when they are put together, may materialize into something definite. From testimony received from several of the victims and from a couple of neighbors of the victims, I have some information which may be useful in the near future."

Sheldon Seuzeneau was another car owner whose vehicle was stripped completely of the hub caps. On several other cars just a couple of the hub caps were stolen and the others were left.

Commuter Bus Stays 'Til Sept.

The Greyhound Bus Company notified Mayor John Scalf the new commuters bus schedule will be kept in effect until the first week in September.

The company is running the bus to New Orleans at commuters' hours in the morning on an experimental basis.

Thus far, it said, there are only five regular commuters using the bus.

Band Concert At Bay High Friday Night

On Friday, at 8 p. m., Bay High School will present its Music Department in a Spring Concert in the school's auditorium. The program is under the direction of Mr. Marcel La Nasa.

The first half of the program will be presented by the Bay High Band.

The second half of the program will be presented by the Chorus of 45 girls, which has recently been heard at Pearl River Junior College's Annual Choral Festival.

Five persons have qualified to run for the unexpired term of Beat One Supervisor Joe Jones in the special election May 10. One of them is Jones' widow.

The other four are:
Carl (Mutt) Miller
C. E. Martin
Chas. A. Russ, Jr.
B. U. (Pat) Carver

Mrs. Jones has appealed to the voters to elect her only for the remainder of this term, which would end in January. There has been some talk of all candidates withdrawing to let Mrs. Jones have the job. But four of them qualified before the deadline midnight Saturday.

Mrs. Jones said she was running in accordance with the last wishes of her deceased husband. There was also the suggestion that the winning candidate give all of the salary between now and January to Mrs. Jones.

If necessary there will be a runoff election in this special election, to determine the winner of the Supervisor's job.

The text of Mrs. Jones' statement:

"Through your kindness, I wish to take this means to thank and to extend my personal sincere appreciation, which includes the entire family of Joseph C. Jones, deceased, for the many generous expressions of sympathy to us in our recent loss."

"The people of this county and particularly of Beat One, have been very kind to our family and to our deceased husband and father, Joseph C. Jones, and for which we are forever grateful."

"Prior to the death of my husband, he expressed his desire that I, as his widow, should fulfill his unexpired term of office as a member of the Board of Supervisors of Hancock County, Mississippi, in case he died during a term of office. It is my expressed desire not only to carry out his wishes, but to be of service to the people served by him in Beat One and throughout Hancock County, Mississippi. Should he have lived, he would have been an official of this County until January, 1956, and I have offered and qualified as a candidate from Beat One to fulfill the balance of his term of office in a special election to be held on May 10th. There have been some statements made in some of the papers by some of the candidates in our beat that they would be willing to give me the salary of the office for the balance of the unexpired term if they were elected. Frankly, I appreciate their gestures, but I am not seeking charity from my fellow citizens who aspire to office."

"I feel that I can be of service for the next six months, and I have no ulterior motives in seeking the position, but only to serve the wishes of my deceased husband and to be of service to the people of my beat and Hancock County, Mississippi."

"Again thanking you for the use of your column for expressing our sincere appreciation, I am

Sincerely yours,
"Mrs. Joseph C. Jones."

The great value of the National Guard to community, a national guard was strikingly demonstrated April 20 during operation "Miniteman," the annual nationwide, one-day drill.

The local National Guard detachment during the alert that it was ready, at a few minutes notice, to help defend the area or to extend invaluable assistance in case of fire, tornado, flood or other disaster.

Sportsweek

By GREGORY FAVRE

(This is another part in the series of old time boxing along the Gulf Coast with your old time boxing manager and trainer Sidney Manieri.)

Another name that caused fight fans to turn out in droves to witness his fights along the strip called the Gulf Coast was Dudley Carver.

A native of Bay St. Louis, Dudley was handled by Sidney Manieri.

He started fighting professionally following his discharge from the United States Navy.

He boxed in the featherweight class and at one time was the featherweight champion of Mississippi.

Mr. Sidney recalls, "Dudley was another Ralph Dupas. He had the same style and was as fast as Dupas. He could throw a one two combination faster than the clock could tick."

"Dudley won the championship in his class in Mississippi. This was a pretty good feat in those days. He was one of the best boxers ever turned out from this territory. And had he kept up in the game I believe he had a chance of becoming World Champ."

"Little Boy" Peterson was another member of the local fighting circles who was something of a sensation here along the Coast.

Little Boy, brother of the nationally known heavyweight title contender, Big Boy Peterson, fought all the good boys from New Orleans, Biloxi, Gulfport and many other cities in this surrounding territory.

According to Mr. Sidney, "Little Boy had the most fighting guts of any boy that was boxing during those times. If only he had kept training."

"He was one of the most active club fighters seen on the Coast. Little Boy used to fight every week."

While thinking over the past Mr. Sidney came upon the name of Les Dawsey.

"Dad" Manieri and another boxing contractor had made arrangements for Dawsey, then the top boxing figure and attraction of his native land Australia, to come here and fight some of the leading American boxers.

But as Mr. Sidney relates, "Les never did get to fight here. He spent over $100,000 in training for fights and other expenses, but Governor Whitman of New York boycotted him throughout the nation."

"At that time Les arrived here and there was a war going on and Whitman stated that he didn't think Dawsey should be allowed to fight because he came from a foreign country. And every time Les got a fight lined up the New York Governor would come along and have it canceled."

Mr. Sidney continued, "The closest he ever came to getting in the ring was in New Orleans. Governor Pleasant agreed to let him fight. But on the day of the fight Whitman put so much pressure on Pleasant that he had to stop the fight."

"This was the greatest waste of boxing talent in the history of the world. Les Dawsey would have been the middleweight champion of the World had he been allowed to fight here. He was one of the best I have ever laid eyes on. While training here for a fight he used to spar with my brother Russell and Happy Littleton of New Orleans."

"Both of these boys were very good, but they couldn't handle Les. As it turned out he joined the United States Air Force and a couple of years later died of pneumonia in Little Rock. He was a great fighter."

Speaking about middleweights, Mr. Sidney was asked who would be classed as the outstanding middleweight that he ever saw campaign?

"Without hesitation, the ground old man of boxing in Bay St. said, 'Ironically as it seems the best I ever saw campaign was a man who didn't even become champion. His name was Jeff Smith. Stanley Ketchum was good but I don't think he could have stayed in the same ring with Smith.'

"Smith fought Harry Greb so many times that they couldn't even keep a record on the correct number. And each time they fought to a draw. One day Greb and Smith got in an argument in my father's gym. Greb wanted to schedule a fight to the finish between the two."

"But Smith told Harry that would be foolish. We have fought so many times already and each has ended in a draw. I never could beat you and you never have seen the day that you could beat me, so why fight another bout. We have already fought 20 rounds and that should be the finish of any man."

Next week Mr. Sidney puts the finishing touches on his parade of boxing stars of the past.

The Mississippi Game and Fish Commission will hold its annual public hearing before setting the 1955-56 hunting-trapping seasons. The hearing will be held in the auditorium of the Woolfolk State Office building Tuesday, May 3, at 10:00 a. m., according to Director Wade Creekmore.

Creekmore said anyone interested in the dates of the seasons bag limits, etc., is invited to attend the meeting and make his views known to the Commission.

Soft crabs were really giving this past week, along the beach from Bayou Caddy to Biloxi. It looked like Canal Street, with hundreds of lights of all descriptions, and the owners of the lights searching for the delicate, delicious morsels of food. Now's the time, better get that old light ready and join the fun.

Green trout and perch fishing is coming into its own again—with the waters clearing up in the Bayous and Jordan River. Right now Pearl River just keeps rolling along, muddy and high. Should be better shortly.

They have been catching green trout and perch up Bayou La Sent, Bayou Malini and Rotten Bayou. Jordan River proper should be clear by the end of the week.

Among those reporting catches were Joe Kern and Teddy Stechman, Alden Mauffray, Bob Genin and son and Herbert Wise, Mr. and Mrs. Honey Schwall, A. C. Mitchell, Pete Caruso and Joe diBenedetto.

The qualifying rounds for the men's and ladies tournament will be held at the Pass Christian Golf Clubs will take place this Saturday and Sunday. To qualify you must play 18 holes at one time. The tournament will be continuous until the end of May. Ladies will qualify on May 3rd.

Did you know that Crayfish shed their shell just like a snake or soft crab. That's how they grow. Soft shell Crayfish are grand bait for green trout.

On that camping trip or a fish fry at home—"Hushpuppies" are an institution deserving of the greatest care in their preparation. Quite a few recipes exist and here is one that appeals.

Mix 2 cups of corn meal, 1 cup flour (unsifted), 1 tablespoon salt, and 3 tablespoons baking powder. Beat 2 eggs and work into the corn meal mixture along with 2-3 cup chopped onion. Dip out by the spoonful and fry in deep fat in which fish has been fried.

The TEEN TATTLER

By DONALD BYRD

Congratulations to Bill Watts, Patsy White, Winston Levy, Linda Sharp, Courtney Coward, Martha Allison, David Levy, Kenneth Pepperdene, Norvin Penrose, Sally Yarborough, Jack Husband and Bobby Van Colson who did a wonderful job conducting the 9:30 and 11 o'clock services at the Christ Episcopal Church on Sunday. This was House of Young Churchmen's Sunday.

On Tuesday St. Joseph Academy had its Athletic banquet at the St. Joseph cafeteria. The menu was turkey with gravy, broccoli, and a salad made of yellow cream cheese with a little red 'J' on the top. The place cards were little basketballs.

Large gold trophies were presented to Patty Olivareita and Jeanette Monti, seniors. Another senior, Dianne Seuzeneau, was awarded a smaller trophy. Patsy Shadoin and Alice Scaffie received pennants for being scorekeepers. Pam Crasto received a bronze medal with her name on it. She was team manager. The Junior Varsity players received small gold basketballs and the Junior players got silver basketballs. Miss Rosenthal, the girls coach, was presented with a small 'J.' Sister Mary Jean, also coach, was presented a small spiritual bouquet by the girls.

There was a dance at St. Stanislaus gym Saturday night. This dance was sponsored by the Junior Class, and will be one of the last dances of the year, except the prom. The girls of Troop 1 held a "record hop" at the Youth Center Friday night. Soft drinks were served and games were played and everyone had a nice time.

Harold Bordages has been spending much of his time in New Orleans visiting Mary Carol Kuchel.

Visiting Clela Miller Sunday afternoon was Linda Anderson from Long Beach.

The people of Waveland are trying to get a Youth Center like the one in the Bay. Every Friday night they have a dance at the Waveland School to help raise money to build it. So why don't you help them and go down there every once in a while. It only costs a few cents.

Join your OWN National Guard

RIGHT AT HOME IN BAY ST. LOUIS

Are You

A YOUNG MAN? The National Guard offers young men the opportunity of a lifetime . . . the opportunity to start meeting your military obligation right here in your own hometown.

Stay in School or Business . . . you can live at home and continue your schooling or remain in your job while you begin your military training alongside your friends, schoolmates, neighbors—in your home town National Guard unit. What's more, you benefit from the many special opportunities open to you as a member of your hometown National Guard unit.

Top training near home. You will learn useful military and technical skills from experienced veterans. In addition, you'll receive valuable extra income for the time you spend in training, and at the same time qualify for retirement pay.

Educational opportunities qualify you for better paying civilian jobs. Enjoy the sports and recreation facilities available to Guardsmen, their families and friends.

Advancement and promotion as high as your interest, ability and experience will take you. You may qualify for an Officer's commission or an appointment to West Point. The leadership training you receive in the Guard prepares you to give orders and direct others. These qualities will make you a better man and a leader in your community.

Are You

A PARENT? Your son like every other young man who is 17 years of age or older, may soon be faced with some kind of military service.

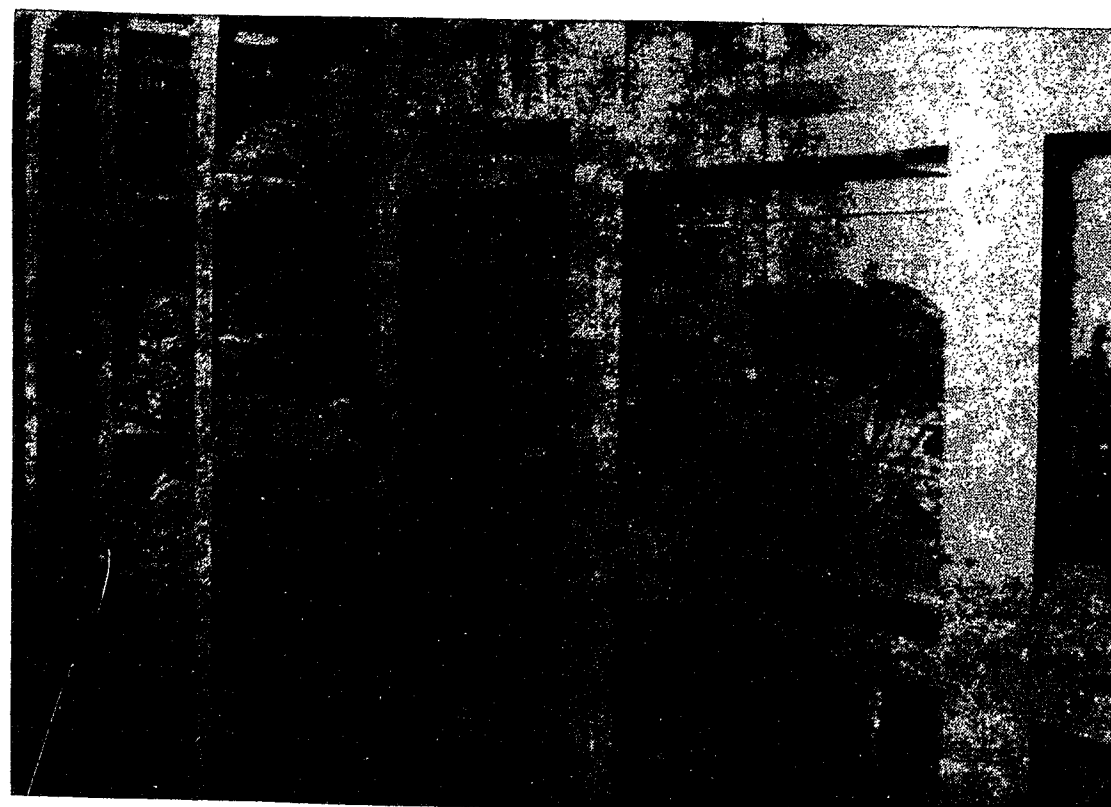

He has a choice—he can wait and take his chances as to when Selective Service may call him or he can start meeting his military obligation right now in the National Guard.

If he waits until he is inducted, he will leave home for full time active military service without any previous training or experience.

In the National Guard he can begin training while he is still living at home and going to school or working at his civilian job. He will be able to break into military training gradually with friends, most of whom are his own age, and receive his first lessons as a soldier along with other young men—neighbors in your own community who are also citizen-soldiers.

Are You

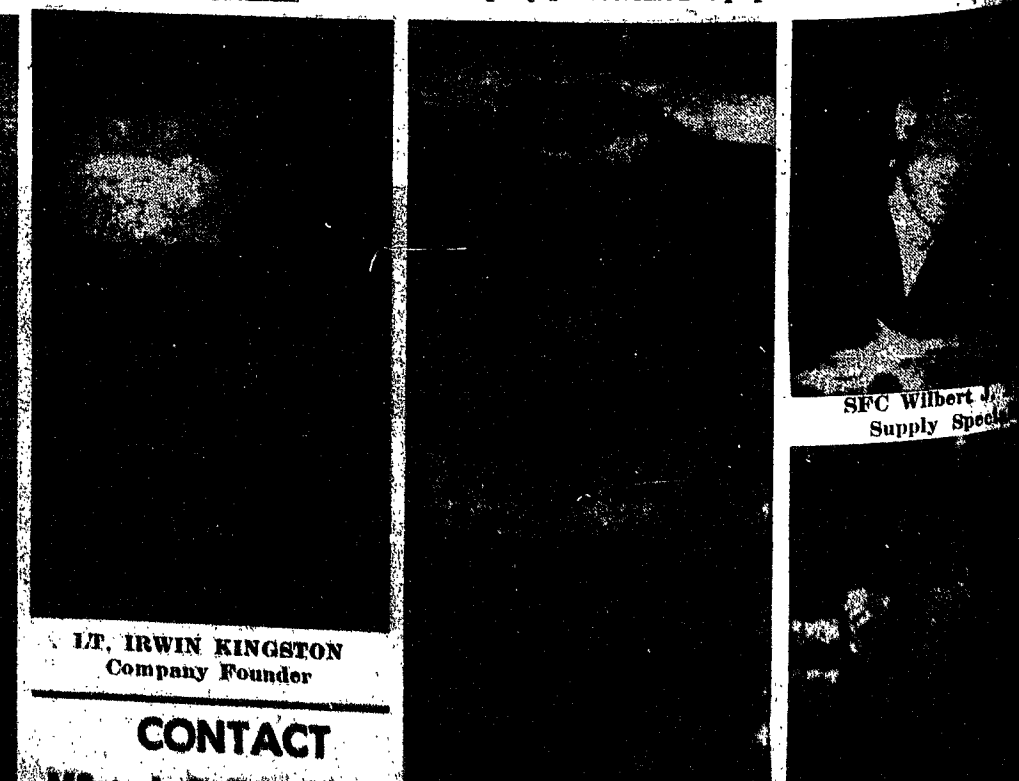

A VETERAN? Our nation is indebted to you for your active military service. You are to be congratulated on a job well done. When you were released from active duty your first concern was to get set again in civilian life. However, you must realize that the security of your nation requires that you serve in a reserve status. Public Law 51 establishes this reserve obligation, so that America will have a strong reserve of trained men in time of national emergency. Therefore, it is most important that you understand what you must do to fulfill your remaining military training. As an example, if you served two years of active duty, you can satisfy the remaining six years of your military obligation by enlisting with your local National Guard unit for four years; if you served on active duty for three years, you can serve an additional three years in the National Guard and complete your total eight years obligation. In addition, you have accumulated valuable credits for your active duty. Don't throw them away! Be smart! Get the many benefits that will be yours through membership in the National

John Holcomb and the Misses Marlene Egloff and Udell Favre.

Waveland Garden Club won service award at the state picnic on its annual picnic.

It's a fine property which the club can pay for.

Nelson was kept by her children.

Recent holidays were Mr. and Mrs. Holmes of Bay St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Carbonette took advantage of the occasion to honor her with a lovely pastel party to which approximately 30 guests were invited.

The color scheme was pink, yellow and white and the prizes awarded during the games went to Floyd Holland, Judy Raymond and Donald Tillman.

The seniors at Kiln High school are being given a round of parties prior to the big graduation night of April 29th.

Last Wednesday, Myrna Ray Ladner was hostess at a party at her home at Bayou LaCroix and on Thursday Mrs. Alice Gaudet gave the group a beach party in Pass Christian.

Sunday the seniors themselves gave a dance at the Kiln gym, to which they invited their friends and on Tuesday Jimmy and Hayward Ladner Honored the class with a party.

Larry Mauffray, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Mauffray, was home for a visit last week. He had a chance to enjoy the lovely new Mauffray home on the beach—while here he also went to New Orleans to attend the wedding of his service friend.

Mrs. Ashley Calogne has returned from a recent visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Sidney Calogne in Baton Rouge. While there she participated in the wedding festivities surrounding the marriage of Miss Ann Barron of that city.

ARC Workers

Complete Afghan

The monthly meeting of the local Red Cross sewing group was held April 15, when one afghan for the Gulfport VA hospital was completed, and another started.

Workers present were Mesdames Caroline Woodcock, Karl von Matzradt, Charles G. Moreau, Ben Argus, R. M. Freis, H. J. Thompson, Etta Maspero and P. Ferriot.

Meetings will be held on the second Friday of each month, at 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. W. L. Argus and volunteers interested in participating in the projects for hospitalized veterans and servicemen may contact any of the above ladies at the Red Cross office.

The mother is the former Julie Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Elliott. And young Vincent is 19th grandchild for the Elliotts.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Sigerson and family of New Orleans were weekend visitors of Mrs. Rose Sigerson.

Cpl. Wm. F. Cooper, Jr., now stationed at Santa Ana, California, Marine Corps Facility is coming home May 7th, for three weeks before going overseas for duty in the Pacific area, attached to the Air Squadron as electronic technician.

Mr. Don C. Ryan of 115 Julia Street, Bay St. Louis and J. Chris Nungesser of 770 Beach, Waveland, attended a performance of the new hit musical, "Penny," starring Ezio Pinza and Walter Slezak, while visiting in New York.

FRED WELLING, popular radio star of WVMI says, "My wife has always used light Karo for cooking...and on the table—it's dark Karo for me, the best-tasting eating syrup of 'em all"

Yes, indeed...biscuits go like hot cakes when you pour on plenty of delicious dark Karo...there's nothing like it for good eating. Satisfying flavor. So rich it stands right up on top of biscuits (keeps 'em light and fluffy). Keep Karo on your table...it tops anything!

Ask your grocer for DARK Karo, in pint and quart bottles

When you buy insurance...

... buy from an agent ...

... who operates a local business, who supports local enterprise, and who pays local taxes—just as you do.

The money this agency makes stays in our town, and because it stays here and circulates, some of it eventually winds up in your pocket again. As you know, the more money circulating in a town, the healthier will be the financial status of every person in that town.

With hot weather and company weekends in the offing, you'll want to check up on the new timesavers in the good food line available at local groceries.

Deviants help so much to make the meal and the newest of the cake packages is an orange cake put out by Pillsbury and available at most of the stores around town. It's best to use it with something tangy like a lemon icing.

Borden's latest offering is a butter-rich pecan ice cream and at Glenn's Sunshine's restaurant, Mrs. Glenn says they'll be having lemon sherbert with the advent of warm weather. They already carry lime and pineapple.

At C & S, you can buy from the refrigerator bins a refrigerator cream cheese cake put out by a noted Danish pastries outfit. The concoction, made with a sweet crumb crust is a long way.

The buttermilk biscuits, which are also available at C & S in the refrigerator counter, are excellent. They brown in five minutes, have a fine delicate flavor and don't stick to their baking container the way some of the refrigerator biscuits do. Don't keep them around too long before baking.

In the meat line, the best tasting ham you'd ever want comes in the form of the little ham, being sold in such huge quantities by Wilmer's Grocery. The ham is usually around two pounds—cooking time is about two hours and the result is delicious.

Shella Heltzmann entertained a group of teen agers at their week-end home in Kiln this past weekend.

Kiln's Baccalaureate sermon was held Sunday at ten o'clock in the morning in the Kiln High gym. Guest speaker was the Rev. Father Adriend. After the ceremony, the seniors marched to the church for a High Mass. There are twenty five seniors.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elrod and daughter of Gulfport visited the Xavier Cures this past weekend.

Other week-end visitors in the Kiln were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cuevas and son of Pascagoula; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Curet and son of Pascagoula; Mr. and Mrs. Otis Curet.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Necaise announce the birth of their child and second son.

Mrs. Tom Merrill is a medical patient at the Memorial hospital in Gulfport.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvis Necaise announce the birth of a son, at Kings Daughters Hospital.

The Kiln skating ring is now open on Saturday and Sunday evenings. Everyone is invited. There's loads of fun skating.

A few of the Bay St. Louis teen agers enjoyed skating Sunday night.

Miss Catherine Webb was the week-end guest of Miss Beverly Jean Mauffray.

The seniors were entertained this past week at a flock of parties. Mrs. Izella Glass entertained them with a chicken spaghetti dinner. Mr. and Mrs.

Next: Cancer

The world is still thrilled about man's victory over polio. There's plenty of praise for Dr. Salk. And he deserves it. But the dimes Americans contributed for so many years were as important as the good doctor's labors.

Yet now we cannot rest on our laurels. There are other battles to be fought—and won—in man's war against disease. Cancer is a good place to start. Here is another disease which sweeps down millions before their time. Here is a disease which strikes the young and old alike.

The cancer fund drive has just started. Think about it. Think about the children who might have been crippled by polio—yet now are safe. Then remember: your money to fight cancer can hasten the same stirring victory as it did over polio. Don't wait to be asked. Drop a dime or a dollar or more in the mails to Mrs. Wilmer Thibaux, Bay St. Louis, Miss. Do it today!

Phoney Conclusion

A letter to the editor of the New Orleans Item—signed "William Ataway"—protests the closing of the Oasis. He says that a number of poor people "began to prosper" when gambling began at the Oasis.

Well, do doubt some people did "prosper" from the Oasis. But it's doubtful how poor they were before the place opened. Of late, the Pearlinton area has started a real estate boom. It's the building of summer homes, similar to those on the Jordan River. The people who build them are city folks who want to get to the quiet of the country. They don't want to move into a gambling hole—especially one operated by people run out of their own state.

It is true that a place like the Oasis will provide a few menial jobs for the local residents. But a thriving resort community will make a lot more jobs, and the pay will be better. What's wrong with gambling? Actually, the real harm is the corruption it breeds. Gambling cannot operate without a "pay-off," and "payoff" puts a public official in private enterprise. He's no longer serving the public.

Lonely?

There's nothing worse than being lonely. And now you can lick the problem.

There are many older folks—especially those who have retired—who have moved to Bay St. Louis. But they come among strangers. And they're at a loss to meet people. Now something wonderful has been done about it.

Beginning soon, adults will meet at the Teen Age Club on Wednesday nights. There's no invitation needed. And nothing formal about it. It'll just be a get-together of the adults of the community so they can meet and relax with one another.

A club will be formed—and YOU can name it. Mrs. C. R. Beyer and Mrs. Marguerite Kern, who are forming the club, are offering a prize for the person who picks the most suitable name for the club. Send your entry to Box 223 in Bay St. Louis. But even more important than your entry is yourself.

No overtime pay for Mother!

There's no 8-hour day for Mother, no vacation, holidays, or overtime pay. Because running a family is a full-time job.

That's why electricity is just like another pair of hands for the homemaker. Around the clock and around the calendar, electric service is working hard to make life easier for Mother—healthier and more comfortable for the entire family.

Yet electricity costs so little! Matter of fact, it's the only worker that gets paid less for overtime. That may sound strange, but it's true. The more you use electricity, the less it costs for every task it does for you. There's no other item in your family budget that gives you so much real living value—for so little cost.

Wool Program

Clarified

Fitzhugh Lee, Chairman of the Hancock County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee this week remanded sheep and wool growers of the county they must get some specific information from buyers if they are to get the benefit of the new wool program.

If the wool is sold outright to a buyer at the farm or ranch or on a shipping point the sales document must contain the name and address of seller, date of sale, net weight of wool sold, net amount received by the grower for his wool, any applicable non-marketing deductions such as association dues, and the signature of the purchaser or his agent. If the wool is sold outright at a distant terminal, the bill of sale should show the cost of transportation and storage charges.

If the wool is sold on consignment, the amount of sale should show gross proceeds and marketing deductions for transportation from local shipping point, handling charges and commission, grading, scouring, or carbonizing storage and any other specified charges. Advances interest on advances, charges for bags and such items as association dues also should be shown.

Payments to the grower will be based on the net proceeds—gross payments less marketing deductions.

To assure payment the grower
 must submit the bill of sale or copy of the account containing the information indicated with his application for payment. Application blanks will be obtained from the County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office at Bay St.
 Louis, Mississippi.

Chairman Lee advises wool growers to send their application for payment as soon as possible after their wool is marketed. Applications must be in not later than 30 days after the close of the marketing year.
 Payment to growers for wool shorn since January 1 and marketed during the current marketing year starting April 1, 1955, will be made in the summer of 1956. Payments will be based on the percentage needed to bring the national average return to growers to 62 cents per pound. The more the individual grower gets for his wool, the higher will be his payment.

POULTRY

Management is the key to successful poultry production—whether it be broilers or layers. Included among top management items are plenty of feed.

Crowding does not pay off in the chicken house. It is recommended that broilers be allowed at least 1 foot floor space per bird. Replacement pullets, to be put on range at 4 to 6 weeks of age, need slightly less floor space. However, mature hens in the laying house need quite a bit more space. Three and a half feet per bird is a starting point and more will be needed for larger breed birds.

Plenty of space at the feeders is vital to broiler growing.
 The more room a chick has the more he eats, and the more he eats, the faster he will grow and get ready for market. A starting point for birds up to 5 weeks of age is two inches of space at the feeders. Birds 6 to 12 weeks old need 4 inches.

Chicks need a lot of clean, cool, fresh water. This is a must. Recommendations are for 2 one-gallon waterers for 100 chicks. Broilers need 8 4-foot automatic waterers per 1, 000 birds.

Ventilation is also a must.
 The house should be open from top to bottom on all four sides on warm days. On cooler days, the windward side should be closed but the other sides left open.

For more information on poultry management, see your county agent.

HAY OR SILAGE

Farmers who want hay or silage from oats, wheat or other cereal either alone or with legume should remove livestock by April 1, to April 15. Grazing any longer than this will cut the amount of stored feed.

By applying 30 to 40 pounds of nitrogen to cereals left for silage, the tonnage will be increased. Oats or wheat with a legume will yield six to 10 tons of silage per acre.

Two methods are in use for preserving grass silage. These are wilting or using preservative. Two preservations now recommended are blackstrap molasses and sodium metabisulphate. It will take 60 to 80 pounds of blackstrap per ton of grass or about 8 pounds of sodium metabisulphate for a ton of grass.

WBA Juniors

Have Party

The W. B. A. Juniors of Bay
 St. Louis Review No. 10 held an Easter Egg hunt at the home of Mrs. Nellie Nelson, and despite the inclement weather, had a gay indoor afternoon.

Candied eggs were hidden in the Nelson living room and on the large porch.

Decorations for the refreshments were a large cake, trimmed with small Easter eggs and favors of Easter baskets.

ton of grass.

For summer silage crops sorghum will head the list of crops to put in.

Four varieties now recommended are Tracy, Honey, Atlas, and Sart. Three pounds of Tracy seed and not over 5 or 6 of the others will be enough per acre.

BUY FERTILIZER NOW

Buying fertilizer now and storing it until it is needed is more trouble than simply buying it when you need it, bringing it home and putting it right out.
 But taking some home now is the only way you can be sure of getting all that you need this year.

The situation is that our mixers are having to slow down because warehouses are full.
 To meet your needs each year,
 the mixers must produce several times more than they and the dealers can store at one time.

You, better than anyone else,
 know how much fertilizer you are going to need to make higher crop yields per acre this year. The use of proper ratios of fertilizer is necessary to make a bale or more of cotton to the acre, or to make 50 bushels or more of corn to the acre.

FRED CURET ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY FOR SHERIFF

TO THE PEOPLE OF HANCOCK COUNTY:

Please accept this as my formal announcement as a candidate for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector of Hancock County in the Democratic Primary to be held on the 2nd day of August, 1955.

I was born and reared in Hancock County. I am 34 years old and the son of Mr. Fred Curet, Sr., and the late Mrs. Mozella Williams Curet.

While acquiring my education, I attended the following schools: Kiln, St. Stanislaus and P. R. C.

In 1939 I enlisted and served almost 9 years in the U. S. Marine Corps; 3 years of this was spent in a Prisoner of War Camp in Japan. Upon my return to the United States I re-enlisted for a 3 year period. After receiving an Honorable Discharge, I entered the Mississippi Highway Patrol Training School, which included courses in all types of law enforcement. I was then the first citizen of Hancock County to serve as a state patrolman, and while carrying out my duties, I came in close contact with all law enforcement agencies of the state. I became thoroughly familiar with all of the details, problems and everyday duties which the Sheriff and Tax Collector's office entails. After serving the state for 3 years, I resigned.

I am married to the former Ruth Favre of Kiln, and our union was blessed with 3 children, Larry, Ronald, and Jo Ann. I am a member of the American Legion No. 139, Pere Le Duc Council, No. 1522 of the Knights of Columbus, Mississippi and Tennessee Peace Officers' Association, and the National Ex-prisoner of War Club.

I am an independent candidate and well aware of the many duties and responsibilities that go with the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector. If elected, I will be able to serve the people in a fair and impartial way. Now that we have 2-way radios in Hancock County, if elected, I will hire salaried deputies and a night jailer, who will dispatch night calls to the Sheriff and deputies. There will be a patrol car on duty 24 hours a day, thereby assuring the people of Hancock improved services from the Sheriff's office. I assure the people that no deputies will patrol the Highway except in an emergency. It will be our purpose to encourage more visitors to our community through courteous service. I shall do everything in my power to prevent juvenile delinquency, which is an outstanding problem today.

If elected Sheriff and Tax Collector, I shall keep the office open to each and everyone of you at all times. During the tax-paying months, I will hire extra help in order that you may receive more efficient service in paying your taxes and acquiring your automobile tags.

I am aware that the Sheriff and Tax Collector is the chief law enforcement officer in the County. If I am elected, it will be my purpose and aim to fill this office with dignity, serving all of the people honestly and fairly to the best of my ability; anything less would be a violation of the trust you placed in me as your Sheriff and Tax Collector.

Sincerely submitted,
W. A. (Fred) Curet, Jr.

"440" Wins At Laurel And Pass

That Car "440" did it again. But, this time the top stock car of the meeting at the Pass Road Speedway traveled to Laurel, Mississippi, where it took first place in both the heat and feature race.

The "440", owned by Leo and Leroy Asher and driven by Joe Cospelich, also competed in the trophy dash and first in the heat the "440", which was in first place at the time, got hit coming into the straightaway and dropped far back in the pack.

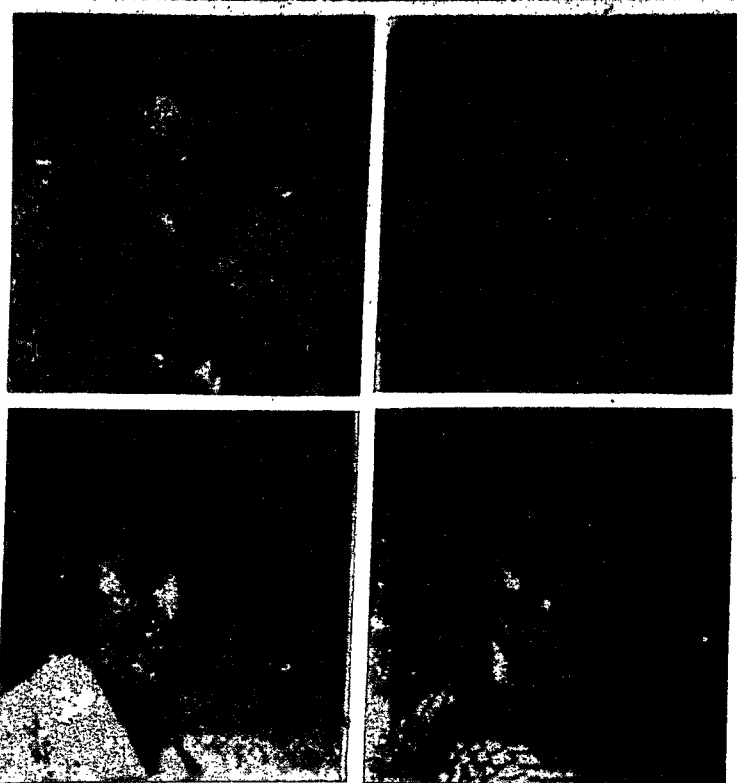

But driver Cospelich stepped on the gas and the "440" came on again and passed five cars to take second place.

The Asher brothers will enter their car in the races again this Sunday at the Pass Road Speedway.

Pan-American Note At Meet

Mrs. L. S. Elliott and Mrs. Ed Ortte were hostesses to the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary here on April 11, when the special guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Kidd and their daughter Mrs. Carmen Mitchell.

Mr. and Mrs. Kidd spoke to the members on Panama, Mrs. Claiborne Ladner set the theme for the meeting with presentation of a program on the Pan-American study.

A REPORT TO THE PUBLIC ON THE TELEPHONE STRIKE

Southern Bell deeply appreciated the efforts made by the Governors to settle the Telephone Strike.

We regret that we were not able to convince those who represented the Union that the Company's proposal for increased wages, expanded arbitration and other contract improvements is fair and liberal. It protects the interest of the public, the employees and the Company.

We will continue our efforts to convince Union leaders of its benefits and advantages. We hope we will be successful.

In the meantime, telephone service continues good. Over 30,000 telephone men and women are on the job. More are returning every day.

We are handling our normal volume of long distance calls. Local service is 85% dial operated, and in the other cities and towns where operators handle the calls, the service is generally normal. Over the South, the messages are going through.

This would not be possible without great encouragement and cooperation given us by telephone users everywhere, and by the skill and support of telephone folks on the job. To both groups go our warmest thanks.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

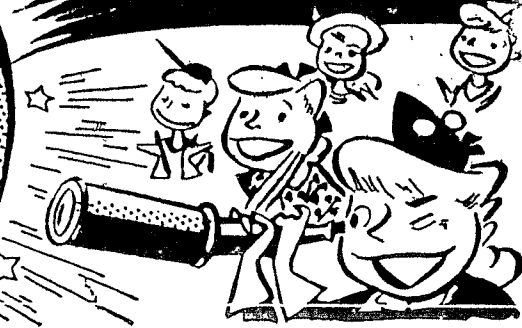

By Mary Lee Taylor

Ham and Bean Rarebit

1/2 cup Per
Evaporated Milk
1 cup grated
American cheese
(4 lb.)
2 teaspoons grated
onion
1/4 teaspoon dry
mustard
1 1/2 cups canned baked beans in tomato sauce
1 cup diced
cooked ham
onion
Heat milk in a heavy saucepan until steaming hot. Add cheese. Stir until cheese starts to melt. Remove from heat. Continue stirring until cheese is melted. Stir in rest of ingredients. Heat until steaming hot, stirring often. Serve hot over crisp toast or toasted split buns. Makes 4 servings.
